LOCAL AND GENERAL

The board of directors of the Kamehameha Alumni Association will hold an important meeting at their club house this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A regular meeting of the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee is being held at the rooms of the committee, Bishop street side, Young Hotel building, today at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

On next Tuesday General Funston will be the guest of Admiral Moore aboard the naval tug Navajo, on which vessel a trip to Pearl Harbor will be made. A few invited guests will also make the trip.

The local temperance workers' fight in behalf of the passage of the Grover bill is being furthered by George W. Paty, secretary of the Anti-Saloon League, who has written, in behalf of the league, to every representative and senator of the United States, as well as to a large number of W. C. T. U. workers, urging them to do all in their power to secure the passage of the bill which means prohibition in Hawaii. Paty believes that the bill will come up for discussion sometime during the next two years, at which time, he believes, it will be bitterly opposed.

KNUDSEN DINNER SWEEPS AWAY PARTY LINES

Dull Care stalked alone through the chamber of the senate last night, and he felt miserable and forlorn, which undoubtedly was the proper way for him to feel. For at the University Club, almost in earshot of him, slim glasses were being raised to President Eric A. Knudsen of the senate, host of the senators last evening.

Around a large table the senators sat, a Democrat by a Republican, and a Republican by a Democrat; yet they were all of one party last night. Governor Frear and Secretary Mott-Smith were present, and sat to the left and right of Mine Host, who called upon them for legislative reminiscences.

Though across the table drifted tales of senate battles when party cudgels were ruthlessly swung, they were told for a laugh and they got it. The solons looked back on the long days of the session which have passed, and compared them with days of other sessions, and in the end pronounced the senate of 1913 the best in the history of the legislature; the most fair and non-partisan. The Democrats paid pretty tributes to the Republicans, and they were marked with the stamp of sincerity. Senator Wirtz, who is of the Democratic cult and none other, rose to voice his appreciation of the diligent work of Senator Judd, as chairman of the judiciary committee, and in turn a Republican expressed his high esteem for the work of Senator Wirtz.

The governor complimented the solons on their non-partisan feeling during the session, as did Secretary Mott-Smith, and once an "outsider" proposed a toast to the senators who have risen above party feeling for the good of the territory.

Dull Care never found his way to the dinner. His shadow never fell across the table. President Knudsen's dinner could not have been a more delightful success, from the clever menu to the "cigarettes a la Pali."

As the courses followed one another the new senator, Frank Woods, who took office yesterday, was told of the fights which are over and those to come. He was told how Senator Metzger had stood off the other senators, and valiantly struggled to amend or slay a bill. But mostly he was told of the fighting yet to come—on the re-appointment bill, in which he played a leading role yesterday; the direct primary bills, and the predicted melee yet ahead on the general appropriation bill, which Senator Rice's committee cut down with the pruning knife of economy. And he learned also the history of Senator Penhalow's sensational school report submitted yesterday. In fact he knew the record of the past and the predictions of the future before the dinner was over.

The governor was far from forgotten in the tributes. When it was said that he had proved the most efficient chief executive of the territory, the room rang with assenting applause; and when Senator Judd stated that if the governor left office, he would leave it in a "blaze of glory," again applause went up from the table.

It was 11 o'clock before the machines were cranked, and the happiest evening the solons have spent together, safely away from Dull Care, was over.

The guests of President Knudsen were Governor Frear, Secretary Mott-Smith, Senators A. F. Judd, D. K. Baker, A. J. Wirtz, Cecil Brown, C. F. Chillingworth, James L. Coke, R. H. Maekawa, Delbert E. Metzger, H. B. Penhalow and Charles A. Rice; John Wise, J. F. Haley, E. J. Betts and D. L. MacKay.

FREE RAW SUGAR WOULD NOT REDUCE COST OF REFINED SUGAR

Reviewing the refined sugar market, Willett & Gray, under date of April 10, make the following remarks:
"Following the decline in raw sugar to 2c per lb. c. & f. (3.36c per lb.) all refiners except the American (4.35c-4.36c) reduced their prices today to the basis of fine granulated at 4.15c less 2 per cent.

"Based upon the fact that the average price for Centrifugal sugar for 23 years has been 2.71c per lb. cost and freight (without duty), it would seem that 2c per lb. c. & f. is far too low a basis on raw sugar on which to figure the value of refined sugar.

"An average price of 2 1/2 c. c. & f. would seem to be a low enough basis from which to value refined sugar under the new tariff. On that basis we figure that granulated sugar under the new tariff should sell at 4.13 per lb. net cash, and as present price is 4.06c net cash, there is little chance of any lower price than now when the new tariff comes into operation.
"There does not seem to be much incentive for running low on stock at 4.06c per lb. with expectation of loss in changing from the old to the new tariff rates of duty."

BUSINESS ITEMS

Hawaiian stocks in San Francisco closed as follows yesterday: Hawaiian Commercial, 30 asked; Hawaiian Sugar, 30 asked; Honokaa, 4.50 bid, 5.75 asked; Hutchinson, 16 asked; Kilauea, 12 asked; Onomea, 20.50 bid, 22 asked; Paahau, 12 bid; Union, 22.50 bid; Honolulu Plantation, 25 asked.

Sentiment was thoroughly bearish on the New York stock exchange yesterday. Adverse influences were those of the European crisis and an award of the freemen's arbitration board which will greatly increase the expense of railway operation. Stocks generally were beaten down and bonds were heavy.

Lionel Hart is suing Dr. Straub for performance of a contract to buy 55 shares of a rubber company's stock, the amount involved in the suit being 15 shares for which $475 is claimed. Written arguments will be submitted to Judge Whitney. It is contended by the defendant that the plaintiff was his fiduciary agent and that therefore he was within his rights when he refused to take the balance of 15 shares on learning that Hart was clearing $10 or more on the transaction.
